

DESIGNER SPOTLIGHT

16 New Jersey Interior Designers to Know From the AD PRO Directory

Searching for New Jersey interior designers to hire? Look no further than our AD-approved list

The New Jersey interior designers on the AD PRO Directory add beauty to the Garden State one home at a time. From Cape May beach houses to Hoboken brownstones, these talents bring their signature styles to discerning clients in New Jersey and beyond. These AD-approved designers specialize in everything from historic homes to home gyms, and whether your aesthetic leans traditional, coastal, contemporary, or modern farmhouse, there's a talent on this list who can create a space that perfectly suits your style. Read on to meet 16 New Jersey interior designers you need to consider for your next redesign or renovation.

The custom-designed sculptural white oak, glass, and metal staircase leading to a private roof walk is the focal point of a Nantucket living room designed by Valerie Grant Interiors. The firm maximized seating to take advantage of the spectacular harbor views and brought in furnishings, fabrics, and finishes in natural materials and sophisticated pale coastal colors. Read McKendree courtesy of Valerie Grant Interiors

Valerie Grant Interiors

Valerie Grant began her career working with brands such as Prada and Ralph Lauren, and she brings a fashion-inspired approach to her eponymous firm. Summit-based Valerie Grant Interiors blends traditional and modern elements in its interiors, which range from modern farmhouses in the Hudson Valley to coastal chic beach houses in the Hamptons. The firm aims to create spaces that are relaxing, durable, and highly personal.